

Marilyn

a play by Gwynne Edwards

(based on the life and films of Marilyn Monroe)

Marilyn

Marilyn brings to life the real woman behind the mask of one of the best known & loved film stars of the Twentieth Century. Although her fame rests largely on her image as the “sexy, dumb blonde”, in this starkly confessional one woman show she tells of her struggle to reconcile herself, her craft & her genius to the demands made by lovers, teachers, directors & her fellow actors.
