The members of the Committee are the charity trustees within the meaning of Section 97(1) of the Charities Act 1993. The Committee must act reasonably and prudently in all matters relating to the Charity and must always pursue the interests of the Charity to the exclusion of personal prejudices and interests.

3.2 The Committee must:

3.2.1 ensure that the Trust Property and all buildings thereon and other property of the Charity are at all times kept in repair and sufficiently insured against all insurable risks including fire and theft and must whenever necessary procure a professional valuation for such purposes; and

3.3 The Committee must firstly apply:

3.3.1 the Charity's income; and

3.3.2 if the Committee think fit, expendable endowment; and

3.3.3 when the expenditure can properly be charged to it, its permanent endowment

4.1 The holding trustees and all persons holding any interest in land beneficially owned by the Charity must take such steps as may be necessary for the purpose of vesting in the

Provided they act only in accordance with the lawful directions of the Committee, the holding trustees should not be liable for the acts and defaults of the Committee or any of its members

4.2.4 the powers of appointing new or additional holding trustees and of discharging holding trustees are exercisable by the Committee alone, but the holding trustees have the same power of applying to the court or to the Charity Commission for the appointment of a new holding trustee as has any other trustee for a charity.
